

If you could be a superhero, what would be your superpower?

CASA Volunteers are sometimes called superheroes. We think of them that way. They give their time, talent and treasure to be the voice for the abused and neglected foster children in our county. This extraordinary role requires heart, caring....and some training provided by CASA.

For pennies a day, less than the cost of a special coffee, you can help us train a superhero for a CASA child.

Grab a friend - a bunch of friends - and support a foster child waiting for a CASA today.

Won't you help us train a new superhero for a foster child in need?

Hundreds of foster children are waiting for a CASA. It costs $1200 to train an advocate. Your donation will go to training everyday people, like you, to become a Super Hero!
